GREAT ACTIVITY IS FORCASTED FOR THE MACEDONIAN FRONT

British Vacate Many Towns East of the Struma and Begin Activities Elsewhere.

RUSS ARMY AND NAVY IS COMING TO LIFE

Vicious Counter Attack in Arras Region Repulsed by Britons.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Developments of some importance apparently are impending on the Macedonian front, following the recent clarification of the military situation in Greece, coincident with the abdication of King Constantine.

The most pronounced movement is a withdrawal by the British without the pressure of their advanced positions some distance east of the Struma River on the extreme easterly end of the front.

Several towns have been evacuated by them and occupied by the Bulgarians.

Simultaneously comes the news of pronounced reconnoitering activities by the Entente forces in other parts of the front, notably along the Vardar in the central sector.

Both the Russian Army and the Russian Navy are giving more evidence of aggressive intent.

Recent German and Austrian statements have related increasing activities by the Russian military forces in various sectors, notably Volhynia and Galicia.

The Russian naval arm, also, has been largely in evidence in Baltic waters. So much so, that Berlin announces it has been found necessary to carry out extensive air raiding operations in this area.

In the Arras battle area, the British were subjected this morning to a heavy counter attack on the new positions they won last Thursday east of Monchy Le Preux.

They held fast to the main points, but had to fall back from some positions which they had established farther in advance.

LANSING'S RUSSIAN GREETING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 18.—Secretary Lansing's communication to Foreign Minister Tereschenko of Russia announcing the sending of the American High Commission under Elihu Root was today made public by the State Department.

The mission, "giving representation to the various elements," of the country, is stated to be prepared to "confer upon the best ways and means to bring about effective co-operation between the two governments in the prosecution of the war against German autocracy, which is today the gravest menace of all democratic governments."

WOMAN, 27, SAYS MAN, 84, PROMISED TO WED HER AND BROKE WORD

MISS HONORA MAY O'BRIEN
JOHN B. MANNING

Miss Honora O'Brien, an attractive young woman of twenty-seven, told a judge and jury in the Queens County supreme court at Long Island City why she thinks she ought to get a verdict of $1,000,000 from John B. Manning, a Wall street banker and broker, for his failure to marry her. Mr. Manning is eighty-four years old and lives at 81 Riverside drive, in New York city. On Dec. 14 according to Miss O'Brien's testimony Mr. Manning, following a dinner in his home, made an offer of marriage to her. He later changed his mind, she says. Mr. Manning is a widower with six children. In her testimony Miss O'Brien said she did not love Mr. Manning, but respected him as a man of brains who was successful in business.

HEART BALM TO PREVENT AIR RAIDS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, June 18.—A verdict of $225,000 in favor of Miss Honora May O'Brien, 28 years old, in her breach of promise suit against John B. Manning, a retired banker and millionaire, 85 years old, was awarded by a state Supreme Court jury in Long Island City today.

The plaintiff, secretary to a New York newspaperman, alleged that the defendant, father of grown children, broke his promise to marry her.

FOR A SEPARATE PEACE WITH RUSSIA

(Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, via London, June 18.—

The Vienna Fremdenblatt says that the statement of the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung will dissipate all doubt about the German government's firm resolve in regard to peace with Russia without annexation or indemnities.

The paper adds, however, that such a declaration only indicates the general character of the peace to be concluded, and continues:

"More precise stipulations for this peace, for example in regard to the Polish states and the foundation of friendly relations with Russia, must first be settled by direct negotiations.

WILL NOW SPEED UP TAX BILL

With Food Bill Out of the Way Better Time Can Be Made.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 18.—Revision of the House war tax bill by the Senate Finance Committee promises to proceed with less speed, now that the food control legislation has precedence in the Senate.

Many members said today that they did not expect to complete the bill inside of two weeks, and that its consideration will be delayed until the food bill is disposed of.

Because of the absence of several senators, the committee today postponed action upon Senator Penrose's motion to reconsider the five per cent profits tax proposed for publishers.

MUNITIONS EXPLOSION IN VIENNA

(Associated Press Cable.)

Vienna, via London, June 18.—It is officially announced that an explosion has occurred in the military munition depots at the Steinfeld, 31 miles from Vienna.

The statement says that three of the depots have been destroyed thus far. Unofficial reports say six persons were killed and three hundred wounded in the explosion.

TO PREVENT AIR RAIDS

(Associated Press Cable)

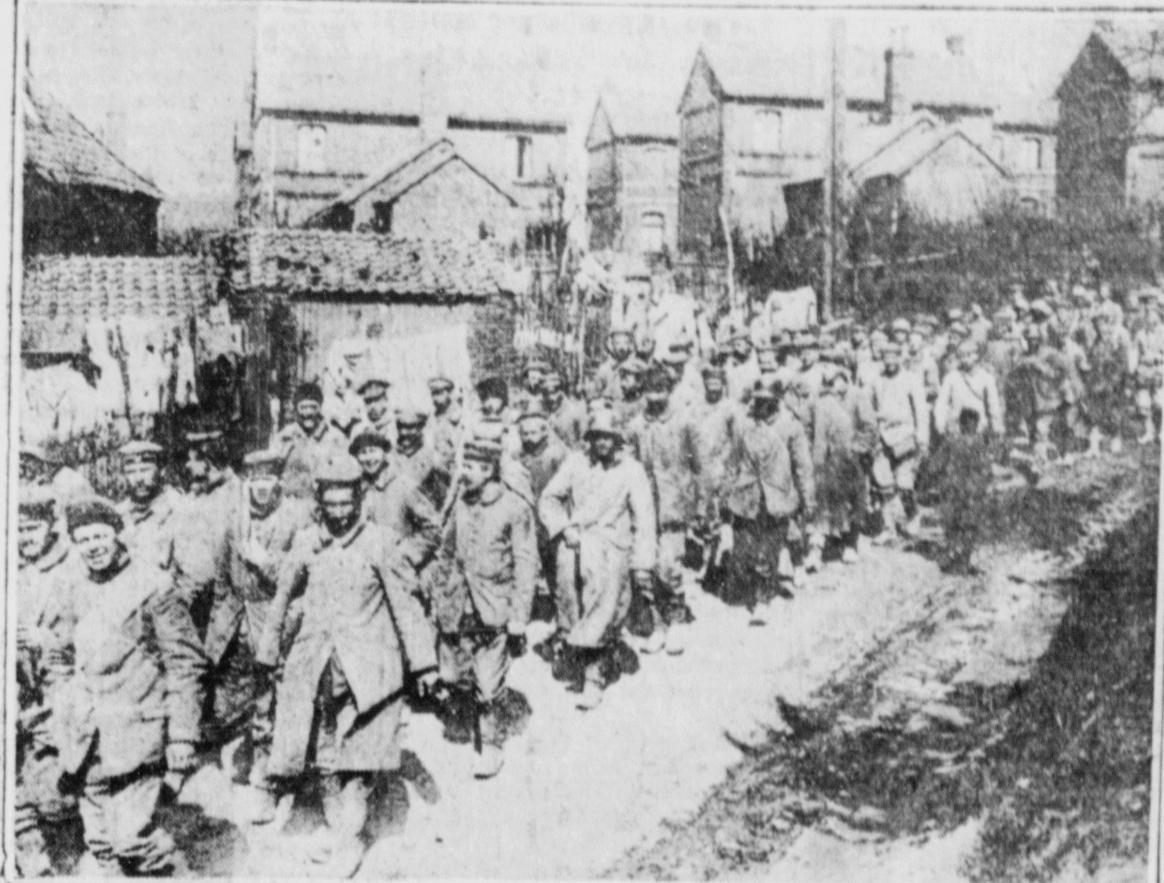

London, June 18.—Replies to a series of questions in the House of Commons this afternoon as to whether the British Government had decided upon reprisals for the German air raids on England, Andrew Bonar Law, member of the British War Council, said the Government intended to take steps not only for damaging the enemy, but for preventing raids on England.

It was a mistake, however, Mr. Bonar Law said, to assume that air raiding was confined to the enemy. The British air forces in France had raided German communications and all important military objectives behind the lines that were of sufficient importance to justify such enterprises.

GERMAN PRISONERS ON THEIR MARCH TO THE REAR

GERMAN PRISONERS CAPTURED BY CANADIANS PASSING THROUGH FRENCH VILLAGE

Recent dispatches from the battle front in France assert that many Germans were captured unwounded, but rendered insane by the terrific shock of the French and British bombardment. They, with thousand of others, were taken to the rear to swell the ever growing total of German prisoners in the hands of the allies. A group of German prisoners, some of those captured by the Canadian troops in a recent battle in France, are the gun room and obtained guns and bayonets.

They were preparing to march on the city prison when Captain Klinger and First Sergeant Boyce arrived. After strenuous efforts and threats of wholesale prosecutions, the officers induced the excited men to lay down their weapons.

The fight between Gilmore and the negro began at a street carnival.

War Department officials generally had fixed September 1 in their minds as the time training would begin.

The first body of officers for the new army, now being trained in camps throughout the country, is to be turned out in August, to make room for the next body.

This was arranged on the plan of having the draft complete, exemptions disposed of and troops ordered into training by September first.

DEATH CLAIMS OLDEST MEMBER OF COMMISSION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 18.—Commissioner Judson C. Clement of the Interstate Commerce Commission died here today. Commissioner Clement had served on the rate making body since 1892, and once had been chairman.

He was sixty years old and a native of Georgia. He was a Democrat, first appointed by President Cleveland and reappointed by President Taft and again by President Wilson.

His long connection with the commission had made him well known to the transportation world.

GUARDSMEN "GUILTY" OF RIOTING

All Except Three of the Men Arrested at Ironton Acknowledge Guilt.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Ironton, O., June 18.—All except three of the thirteen men arrested shortly after Saturday midnight for participation in a riot caused by the arrest of Edward Gilmore, National Guardsman, today pleaded guilty to inciting riot when arraigned before Mayor Hannon, and all were held to the grand jury under $1,000 bond. The three will have a hearing late today.

Gilmore was placed under arrest late Saturday night for fighting with a negro.

Some of his friends, about fifty strong, resented his arrest and marched to the city prison to demand his release.

Police officers met them at the prison door and stood them off with a gun. The mob then marched to the local armory, broke in a door, forced

PRICE OF STEEL PLATES FIXED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 18.—A basic price of $56.20 a ton was fixed for steel plates in contracts for ten steel ships complete, and for twenty-four additional wooden hulls, were announced today by Major General Goethals, general manager of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. The vessels will be delivered in 1918.

The fleet corporation now has contracted for a total of 138 ships and hulls. Complete steel ships contracted for number 28, complete composite ships, 32, and complete wooden ships, 30. Contracts have been let for 48 wooden hulls.

THE ZEPPELIN Z-48 IS LOST WITH EVERY MEMBER OF CREW

Berlin, via London, June 18.—Associated Press Cable)—The Zeppelin Z-48 was lost with all on board in Saturday night's raid on southern England, the Admiralty announced.

An official British account of the raid said two persons were killed and sixteen injured by bombs. The Zeppelin fell in a field a few miles from the coast instead of in the sea as the German statement reports.

NEW ARMY TO BE LATE IN CAMP

Unless Unforeseen Rush in Construction Work on Sites Develops.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 18.—Unless there are unforeseen developments to hurry construction of the sixteen cantonment sites for training the new national army, the first increment of 650,000 troops will not be placed in training by September 1, as generally has been supposed, and, in fact, may not get into training for six weeks thereafter.

War Department officials said today that no specific date ever had been set for the opening of the training camps.

Secretary Baker, however, in a letter to Senator Jones several weeks ago, answering a suggestion that some of the troops be used for harvesting, spoke of September 1 as the probable date of the opening of the camps and pointed out that most of the harvesting would be over by that time.

The fight between Gilmore and the negro began at a street carnival.

The first body of officers for the new army, now being trained in camps throughout the country, is to be turned out in August, to make room for the next body.

This was arranged on the plan of having the draft complete, exemptions disposed of and troops ordered into training by September first.

SALE OF TAGS NETS NICE SUM FOR RED CROSS

Part of Proceeds of Opening Day at the Chautauqua Are Also Put Into the Red Cross Treasury.

Dr. R. M. Hughey Explains the Purposes of the Organization at the Afternoon Meeting on Sunday.

Interests have united lately in the boosting of the Red Cross membership campaign.

The score of pretty girls who sold tags uptown on Saturday did an excellent service to the cause. More than $175.00 was raised for work here, and the 1200 tags had all been disposed of long before evening.

At The Chautauqua

On Sunday, part of the program at the Chautauqua and a percent of the proceeds were turned over to the interests of the Fayette Chapter of the Red Cross.

Dr. R. M. Hughey gave a very interesting talk preceding the concert in the afternoon, explanatory of the national purposes of the organization. The Red Cross is the first to aid the suffering all over the world. It was founded in Switzerland, and has rapidly spread over the civilized world. At the present time, there are fewer members in the U. S. than in any other country of the world.

A membership booth has been set up on the Chautauqua grounds. Misses Levon Cockerill and Nina Dahl solicited subscriptions during the afternoon.

Washington's allotmen in the great $100,000,000 campaign, that is to start in the United States this week will probably be between $10,000 and $15,000. With all of the campaigning of the past two weeks, only a good start has been made toward the desired goal.

The following members have been added to the local chapter during the past few days:

ALL DUMP WAGONS WILL BE NUMBERED

All "express," or dump wagons of the city are to be numbered, and after being numbered it will be a much easier matter to keep track of them when the driver is wanted for any reason.

The numbers are for the same purpose as auto numbers, except the revenue derived from them, no charge being made for the tags.

It has been the habit of some wagon drivers to dump refuse along or upon the property of someone in the outskirts of the city, and then drive hurriedly away, thus preventing their identity being established unless those who saw them happened to know them personally.

With each wagon numbered it will be an easy matter to keep in touch with the movement of the wagons.

FATHER AND SON INJURED WHEN AUTO AND CYCLE CLASH

Charles Sanders and son, of Cook Station, were painfully injured and had a narrow escape from death, Sunday, when the Hugh LaFollette automobile and the motorcycle ridden by the father and son, came together on the streets of Bloomingburg.

Mr. Sanders suffered painful cuts and bruises and his son was not only cut and bruised, but sustained a slight fracture of one leg. Both were given medical attention and taken to their home.

The LaFollette machine contained a number of boys and girls, including Guy Murphy, of Columbus; Mohert Mathias, deputy marshal of Linden Heights, Columbus; Doyne LaFollette and Doris LaFollette.

The young people were on their way to church, and were driving at a moderate rate of speed. The trouble occurred when at an intersection, and the automobile, after striking the motorcycle, struck a large tree and was brought to a sudden stop, in a damaged condition. The motorcycle was little damaged. When the machine came to a stop Mr. Sanders was pinned beneath the machine.

FISH CONSIGNMENT TO THE CITY DUMP

A local street fish vendor was taken in charge by Health officer Byron and Chief Moore, Saturday, and a consignment of fish said to be decaying was taken to the city dump and there disposed of in a manner less dangerous to public health than where they were sold over the scales at 5¢ per pound for food.

Not only was the consignment of fish destroyed as a menace to public health, but the man was refused a Board of Health license, and this puts him out of business generally in the sale of foodstuffs.

For sometime, according to the officials, the man has been disposing of fish on the streets, and when the Health Officer visited the wagon on Saturday, he was astonished at the bad condition of the fish, and lost no time in seeing that they were disposed of in a hurry by being consigned to the city dump.

CHILLICOTHE MAY BE "FORCED" DRY

Chillicothe is on the verge of going dry.

The announcement comes as a shock to a great many Chillicotheans who are "wet" and as an agreeable surprise to those who are dry.

Announcement was made from Washington, D. C., that no saloons will be permitted within two miles of a cantonment camp and as the Chillicothe camp is a half mile from the city limits, it would include every saloon in the city—some 33 of them.

It is expected that the saloons will be ousted by a government order which will be issued when the camp is formally opened.

Similar action will be taken in other cities where cantonment camps are located.

MT. STERLING BEGINS RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

On Tuesday evening of last week a delegation of the citizens of Mount Sterling met in the opera house to effect a Red Cross organization there.

A mass meeting to stir up enthusiasm was held on Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church. Dr. E. A. Hamilton of Columbus was speaker.

The following officers were elected at the Tuesday meeting: Chairman, A. S. Thomas; Vice Chairman, Herman Carter; Secretary and Treasurer Mary Davis. An executive committee consisting of the permanent officers and three members—Charles H. Clark, Mrs. Clark Beale and Mrs. W. G. Lewis.

ADJOURNED SESSION OF COUNCIL TONIGHT

An adjourned session of the city council will be held at the usual hour, 7:30, tonight.

Street improvement legislation, which has been pending, will be taken up, and any other matters requiring immediate attention will receive consideration.

FROM AMBUSHMAN IS ATTACKED BY PAIR WITH CLUBS

Blueford Shipley Files Affidavit Against Wm. Houser and Ed Banbevers, New Holland Youths Assault Took Place Last Night

Attacked from ambush by a pair of enemies whom he claims to be William Houser and Ed Manbeavers, Blueford Shipley suffered an ugly gash across his forehead, Sunday night about 9:30, when the assault was made in the yard of his home in West Holland, and the two young men were placed under arrest for the attack.

According to Shipley, he was on his way home about 9:30 Sunday night, and when he entered his front yard two men stepped from behind a black bush where they had been awaiting the arrival of Shipley, and struck him a vicious blow across the forehead, inflicting a gash over his left eye, and knocking him to his knees.

Shipley showed fight and put the pair of assailants to flight. When the attack occurred Shipley, according to his story, had $300 on his person, and he believed the pair were after his money.

Monday morning Shipley came to this city and before Justice T. N. Craig filed affidavits against Houser and Manbeavers, charging them with assault and battery.

Warrants for the arrest of the two men were placed in the hands of Constable Clay Thompson, who drove to New Holland and arrested the two men, bringing them back to this city to face the charge against them.

Manbeavers Confesses.

Monday afternoon Manbeavers confessed that Houser and himself had waylaid Shipley, declaring that Houser used a club and struck Shipley, and that he, Manbeavers, had nothing to do with the affair, being intoxicated, and making no attempt to strike Shipley.

Houser, when arraigned before Justice Craig, refused to enter a plea, and was locked up until his hearing Tuesday of next week.

The charge against Manbeavers was dismissed.

REID IS CHOSEN TO HEAD MEETING

A meeting of Ohio Dry Republicans has been called for Memorial Hall, Columbus, Wednesday of this week.

Beans at 26c., Potatoes at $4.50

Crop of "Most Expensive Plot"

PLOWING WORLD'S MOST EXPENSIVE GARDEN PLOT

John F. Letton, manager of a large hotel in Omaha, Neb., and H. E. Gregory, assistant manager, are seen here breaking ground on the $750,000 tract donated to charity. Mr. Letton and the hotel company, besides donating the land, which is in the heart of the business district of Omaha, pay for the upkeep and seeds.

This wartime garden is worth $750,000 and interest on this investment at 6 per cent is $45,000. The tract will be planted in potatoes, onions and beans, and thousands of persons will view its progress daily.

Mathematicians figure that a perfect yield will make each potato worth $4.50 and each bean worth 26 cents. A short crop will make the cost mount even higher.

"We planted this garden for the moral effect it will have," said Mr. Letton. "It will provide food for thought as well as food for hungry mouth."

When harvest time comes Mr. Letton will supervise a harvest festival for the benefit of the Red Cross and will auction off his high priced garden products.

and Hon. C. A. Reid of this city has been made chairman of the meeting.

The meeting is result of the signing of dry petitions recently circulated among Republicans throughout Ohio, and said to have been extensively signed.

Deep interest centers in the meeting, and some definite plans are expected to come from the meeting.

ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

The members of Temple Lodge, I. O. F., held their annual memorial services in the lodge rooms on Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Reverend Jasen Henkle, who is a veteran member of the local Lodge, delivered one of the most eloquent memorial addresses, that has ever been heard in the temple. He was initiated into the order more than 35 years ago.

After the address, a procession of the members in uniform, marched to the cemetery, where 110 graves were decorated. The Rebekahs accompanied the procession in automobiles, and decorated several graves of departed members.

There was a good attendance at the hall and an abundance of flowers were donated by the members.

TWO NEW RECRUITS FOR COMPANY M

Two new recruits were added to Company M over Saturday and Sunday, and a number of inquiries were received from other prospective recruits.

The two new men are farmer boys, a large number of whom have enlisted during the past few weeks, and are Hoyt S. Smith, New Burlington, Ohio, and Howard Allison, Parrett station.

MOBILIZE

Your Linen Chests for War.

Send soft old towels, table linens, sheets, pillow slips and worn lingerie to the Federated Club rooms to be made into surgical dressings.

The cotton factories of the world have been drained of gauze and absorbent cotton and it is impossible to get enough to supply the hospitals at the front with all they need. So the women of the United States are collecting and issuing for this purpose the clean soft linens and cottons.

Even scraps of colored clintz and cretons can be used to make comfort pillows for convalescent soldiers in hospitals.

The National League for Women's service is making surgical dressings every Tuesday afternoon and evening at the Federated club rooms.

Bring or send your goods then.

AUTO OVERTURNS SIX ARE INJURED

When the Luther M. Maag automobile overturned along the John Dunlap farm near Williamsport, Sunday morning about nine o'clock, the six occupants of the car, Mr. and Mrs. Maag and their son Robert and daughter Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffmire, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., were more or less painfully injured.

The machine was going at a good rate of speed when the steering gear went wrong and the machine ran over a small embankment and turned over in the ditch.

Mrs. Maag was the most seriously injured, the left arm being broken, in addition to sustaining many painful bruises and a few cuts.

Mr. Maag suffered cuts and bruises and his collar bone was fractured.

The injuries of the other occupants of the machine consisted of cuts and bruises.

Soon after the occurrence the injured were taken by auto to Williamsport where a physician attended them, after which they returned to this city, arriving about noon.

BIDS ARE RECEIVED ON 1918 AUTO TAGS

The Ellwood-Myers Company, Springfield and Scioto Sign Company, Kenton, are the lowest among six bidders for the 1918 tag contract. The award will not be made for several days.

On tags with four-inch numerals, the Ellwood-Myers bid is 19 1/2 cents and Scioto Sign bid 19 3/4 cents per pair of tags. For tags with three-inch and Scioto Sign bid 19 3/4 cents per cent and the Ellwood-Myers bid 16 7/10.

Tags for next year will be battle-gray with black numerals.

The Abbott Stamping Company of Detroit, which is making the 1917 Ohio tags, is among the high bidders for 1918 tags.

WHEAT HARVEST IS TWO WEEKS LATE

* Wheat harvest this year, according to leading farmers, will be some two weeks later than usual, and little work will probably be done in the wheat fields until the second week in July.

Farmers generally are greatly pleased with the manner in which the wheat has developed, and give credit to the extraordinary weather during the past few weeks.

The heads of the wheat, by reason of ample rainfall, are unusually long and are veritable "war" heads, indicating a heavy yield.

JAVA SENDING MUCH TO THE U. S.

(Associated Press Cable.)

Batavia, Netherlands, East Indies June 18.—The value of Java's exports to America in the first quarter of 1917 exceeded that of the entire export in the year 1916. Considerable public interest has recently been attracted to the big extension that direct trade with the United States has undergone. Largely in consequence of war circumstances, the Holland markets are being eliminated in a number of cases. For instance, one or two important purchases of tobacco for America have been made here recently instead of, as usual, at the Amsterdam auction sales. Well-known American commercial men have been visiting Netherlands, East Indies, and the American banking world is extending its operations in the colony. Efforts have been set on foot to find a regular market for Java tea in the United States.

Japan, as well as America, is keenly alive to the commercial possibilities of the country and, in the enforced absence of German and other competitors, Japanese trade is rapidly extending.

Official Inspection

Inspection is one of the chief official activities of the time. To inspect something seems to be the chief aim of a score of departments in the national government and the several state governments and a fairly good sized army of inspectors are constantly at work.

In only isolated instances, however, is the work of inspection conducted effectively. The great majority of the inspection work is either over done or under done.

There is no doubt that there is a great amount of inspecting done and there is no doubt either that there is a greater amount left undone which needs attention. The whole trouble with the official inspection machinery seems to be that the energy is misdirected. Inconsequential matters are magnified and really important matters allowed to drift—as for instance fuel conditions.

Notwithstanding our elaborate and costly inspection machinery in nation and state, commissions and boards, no relief from a fuel combine controlled, it seems reasonable to assume by a few manipulators and crushing the many retail dealers and consumers, goes on its way unmolested.

There are doubtless a number of inspectors on the job but when they come in contact with the powerful manipulators they seem to curl up and fade away.

And yet with all the grand opportunity to accomplish something worth while, allowed to slip by during normal times legitimate business is burdened almost beyond endurance by red tape inspections and underpaid and inexperienced inspectors.

The chief accomplishment thus far of the inspection machinery seems to be to annoy those who need no inspection and pass by those who need it most.

The Dog Catcher at Work

Well, it's all right, we try to make ourselves believe. Possibly the method which the public authorities have adopted to free the communities from the annoyance and menace of stray dogs is the best that can be devised. Something must be done of course—we can't allow the city to "go to the dogs" which is the same thing as allowing the dogs to take the city.

Every dog not "owned" by some one is a stray and his life may be taken—indeed the officers are duty bound to take it and as there is only one way a dog can be "owned"—by somebody listing him with the assessor and paying taxes on him.

The law which turns the dog catcher loose on the community is one of those regulatory legislative enactments which seems, in its operation, to do very little good, and a great deal of harm.

One evening last week as the dog catcher was making his rounds he saw a "stray" in company with his little master and he immediately gave chase. The boy was a little barefoot urchin who probably never heard of the "dog laws" and knew nothing at all about property or taxation. He only knew that the little yellow cur was "his'n" and the best and truest friend he had ever known. He loved the dog and the dog loved him—they were pals. He couldn't understand why his harmless and constant friend must be taken away and killed.

It was a sad little chap who saw his dog carried away. He may live to be an old man and have many trials, but never will a sorrow strike deeper.

The method may be the best possible—the need for action may be urgent—but if the dog catcher is compelled by duty to take the staunch friend from the side of the little urchins who have so little in life, there are few men who could hold the office and discharge their duties.

The Home Gardens

Unless all present prospects turn out to be disappointing the people of this section will produce enough garden truck to take care of themselves until well along in the fall.

A peep over the back yard fence of almost any home in Washington or a searching long range glance through the shrubbery and flower beds on across the expanse of front lawn will reveal a splendidly kept and quite extensive garden.

While potatoes and tomatoes predominate in the gardens, there is enough of everything else, planted and growing vigorously, to insure all the green stuff necessary for the table during the summer months.

Unless something awful happens there is going to be in the late summer and fall a veritable avalanche of potatoes and tomatoes.

This fall, when the checking up time comes with the home garden club, there will be some tales told of the home garden hereabouts, this summer, that will tempt the fishermen to wish they had never become disciples of Isaac Walton but had taken up the hoe and spade instead of the rod and reel.

Hundreds of people have made themselves and their friends happy this spring by working in the gardens and they will reap substantially too, when the harvest time comes.

Poetry For Today

THE MARSEILLAISE

Ye sons of France, awake to glory,
Hark, hark, what myriads bid you rise.
Your children, wives and grandsons
hoary.
Behold their tears and hear their cries!
Shall hateful tyrants, mischiefs breeding,
With hireling boasts, a ruffian band,
Affright and desolate the land.
While peace and liberty lie bleeding?

REFRAIN
To arms! To arms, ye brave!
The avenging sword unsheathe!
March on, march on, all hearts resolved
To victory or death.

No, now the dangerous storm is scowling.

Which treacherous Kings, confederate, raise!

The dogs of war, let loose, are howling.

And lo! our fields and cities blaze;
And shall we basely view the ruin,
While lawless force, with guilty stride
Spreads desolation far and wide,
With crimes and blood his hands embracing?

With luxury and pride surrounded,
The vile, insatiate despots dare,
Their thirst of power and gold unbounded,

To mete and vend the light and air;
Like beasts of burden would they hold us.

Like gods would bid their slaves
adore;

But man is man, and who is more?
Then shall they longer lash and goad us?

O, Liberty! can man resign thee,
Once having felt thy generous flame?

Can dungeon, bolts and bars confine thee,
Or whips the noble spirit tame?

Too long the world has wept, bewail-
ing

That falsehood's dagger tyrants wield;

But freedom is our sword and shield,

And all their arts are unavailing.

In Social Circles

The beautiful home of Miss Hazel Dwyer of Greenfield was the scene of a delightful affair Tuesday when Miss Dwyer with Misses Margaret Ashline and Marie Young, entertained for Miss Ruth Duncan and her charming and talented house guest, Miss Martha Palmer, of Colorado Spring. Mrs. B. F. Davis of Peebles, a guest of Miss Marie Young was also included in the honor list.

"Guests from out of town were Mrs. W. H. Brown and Mrs. Clarence Craig of Washington Court House."—Sun-Commercial Tribune.

Many friends of Miss Grace Gardner in this city will read with interest the following excerpt from a highly complimentary article upon a recital given by voice pupils of Miss Gardner in Sunday's Commercial Tribune.

"Not only for artistic sincerity and superiority in every way, but for two especial reasons was the song recital by Miss Grace G. Gardner's professional class at the Woman's Club last Tuesday evening notable and memorable.

All six of the young women who took part as soloists reflected the personal and musical individuality of Miss Gardner, each through a very real and distinctive individuality of her own, and all of them demonstrated that they are singers in that true sense in which singing is thought of as mental and spiritual expression through appropriate and artistic vocalization.

"Such discernment on the part of master and disciples illumined and beautified both the construction and the interpretation of this recital program, which was of first-rate concert quality, and was marked by master touches which characterize artistic understanding and confer distinction. Intelligence and singing eloquence, with all the aesthetic and emotional graces they include, were evidently the chief ends sought in the application of their tonal equipment and vocal culture as well as the manifest aim in the training of these women to express the best within them as human thru the most they can make of themselves as musical artists."

This week's social calendar promises unusual activity in a season of pronounced passivity.

NATURALNESS IS KEY TO SUCCESS AND HAPPINESS

Ralph Parlette, Printer and Optimist, Administers an Hour and a Half Dose of "Big Business" to an Interested Chautauqua Audience Sunday Night.

"The big business of life is to find happiness," says Ralph Parlette. "And there are two kinds of happiness, that coming from the outside and that coming from the inside."

"To be successful, a man must be happy, and happiness comes through being natural. Birds and flowers are successful because they are natural. Men are unsuccessful, and consequently unhappy, because they can't be natural. Too many men try to be monkeys or pigs."

"Getting things doesn't make us happy. Happiness is everywhere, and yet we run around searching for it like grandpa, who has lost his spectacles which are resting on his own forehead, or the man who hastens to get under shelter from the rain and at the same time carries an umbrella under his arm. We need a microscope instead of a telescope to find happiness."

Mr. Parlette's lecture was spiced with anecdotes, and each story served to illustrate a series of epigrammatic truths that followed. He played "find the thimble" with the audience, and compared the search for happiness and success to this simple and homely game.

"God does not call men to be ministers any more than he calls men to be a printer, to lay bricks, or to peel potatoes. We are called by God to every duty. Commit thy ways to him and he will help you 'find your thimble.'

He illustrated happiness from within by use of the searchlight. Gold mountings and rich environment didn't make the search light a success. When the right button was pressed, the light shone out from within and it was a success.

SPRINGFIELD IS HUMBLED BY THE LOCALS

In a Fast See-saw Game, Good to See, the Athletics Defeat the Strong Springfield Bunch Yesterday Afternoon.

The game Sunday afternoon at the Athletic Park in which the locals defeated the strong Springfield team—only the second time this year that they have been on the losing end of the final score—was an ideal contest.

The locals grabbed the lead in the first with three runs. It looked safe enough but the visitors gradually drew alongside and passed them. It was see-saw until the eighth, when Washington, by scoring two tallies, tied the score and had one to the good. And that's the way it wound up—6 to 5 in favor of the home team.

The big outstanding feature was the debut of Young Mr. Morris, the new hurler of the local team. Coming to the mound after Reno had "blown up" it looked like a forlorn hope, but he early established himself in the esteem of the crowd by fanning out 6 of the first nine men to face him.

He held the visitors safe at all stages for the remainder of the game and won a verdict of approval from the fans.

Hunter grounded to short and was thrown out at first. 3 hits, 1 base, on balls, 3 runs.

BASKETS MADE BY WOUNDED SOLDIERS

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Colombus, O., June 18.—One hundred and fifteen baskets, all sizes, all shapes and of brilliant colors were recently exhibited in downtown show windows. They were made by convalescent soldiers in the hospital of the American fund for the French wounded in France and each basket had a neatly penned card bearing the name of some battlefield in Europe and the date of the basket weaving. The cards are the records of the soldiers' last engagements.

Miss Theodore Dunham of New York brought the baskets across the sea with her when she returned from Paris where she had been driving a motor delivery car and also a motor ambulance. She was associated closely with Miss Ruth Casparie of Columbus and worked with her. The baskets were purchased outright by Miss Louise Brent, sister of Mrs. A. W. McKenzie of Columbus and sent to a local organization. They are to be sold at the June festival and the proceeds used for the work among the wounded.

"One surgeon told me," said Mrs. McKenzie, "that many a man owed his recovery to having something with which to occupy his mind and his hands during convalescence. He was not given time to think and brood over the horrors he had undergone."

Wood's office are trying to locate Alfred Archer, Civil War veteran, or some of his relatives, to deliver an honorable discharge parchment is sued to Archer, June 9, 1865. PLANT FOOD CROPS INSTEAD OF COTTON

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Torrance, Mex., June 18.—Planters in the fertile Laguna District near here are substituting war crops for cotton this year.

Having learned that the demand for corn, wheat and other staple food stuffs would be heavy and prices correspondingly high, the Mexican hacienda owners have plowed up their cotton lands in this famous cotton growing district of Central Mexico and have planted food crops.

ORGANIZE TROOPS FOR HOME DUTY

(By American Press)

Columbus, June 18.—A task confronting Governor Cox is the organization of home guards throughout the state to protect lives and property and safeguard the interests of the United States in the absence of the national guard and other troops.

It is expected that in many parts of Ohio home guard organizations will be formed at once. Under legislation just enacted by congress, they will receive arms and equipment free from the government.

The law is so framed as to give the governor of each state authority to pass upon every home guard organization formed within the state and to determine whether it shall receive supplies from the government. Such supplies are allotted to the governor, to be distributed by him to the organizations entitled to them, and the governor's receipt and bond are to be taken by the government for the safe-keeping and return of the property.

Now that the entire militia is being sent for service in connection with the war with Germany, the organization of home guards becomes of prime importance.

DUMA ORDERS AN OFFENSIVE

(By American Press)

Petrograd, June 18.—The duma, in secret session, adopted a resolution calling for an immediate offensive by the Russian soldiers.

The resolution declares a separate peace with Germany or prolonged inactivity on the battle front to be ignoble treason toward Russia's allies, for which future generations never would pardon the Russia of the present day. "The duma therefore considers," the resolution adds, "that the safety of Russia and the maintenance of the liberties which have been obtained lie in an immediate offensive in close co-operation with Russia's allies."

Members of the American commission devoted the day to informal conferences with prominent Russians. Elton Root, head of the mission, met Alexander J. Guchkov, chief of the munitions bureau. Ambassador Francis is arranging other small dinners and luncheons to enable the members of the American mission to meet the Russian cabinet ministers.

The Americans are arranging for visits to Moscow, Kiev and Odessa, and possibly to Romania. Rear Admiral Glennon and other naval officers will visit the Russian naval centers independent of the commission's movements. Major General Scott and the officers of his staff will make independent visits to military places.

The announcement last week that the cabinet had decided to suggest a conference of the entente allies for examination of treaties was followed by the publication of the note sent to the other governments in question.

The note suggests a conference to revise agreements existing among the allies as to war aims, with the exception of the London agreement, which provides that none of the signatory powers shall conclude a separate peace.

On the front in France held by the British, aside from the artillery duels there have been only minor operations in the nature of raids and a continuation of the aerial activity that has been so pronounced for weeks past.

Near Hurtebise the Germans, in a night attack, seized portions of trenches held by the French, but later were forced to give back most of them in a counter attack.

In Macedonia the artillery duels that have been in progress for several weeks are still going on, but the expected infantry attacks have not yet developed.

Meanwhile the entente forces continue to throw troops into Thessaly, the occupation of various towns having been accomplished with out-and-out incidents.

Oppose Separate Peace.

Petrograd, June 18.—A proclamation placing the council of workmen and soldiers' delegates on record as irreconcilably opposed to a separate peace was adopted by the council. The proclamation was prompted by Austrian efforts to lure Russia into a separate peace.

General Chang Hsun now is dictator, President Li Hung being little more than a figurehead. The insurgents are calling a convention at Tien Tsin for the purpose of forming a provisional government headed by the dictator, who is expected to act as president and premier.

General Chang Hsun's motives are obscure, but it is believed he is attempting to obtain from the former leaders of the Manchu dynasty an agreement for restoration of the empire. He has urged the president to form a cabinet as soon as possible, suggesting that a provisional council similar to that in Russia be established and that a declaration of war against Germany be made.

Southern leaders, who are congregating in Canton, assert the president sought the mandate for dissolution of parliament under pressure. They say they will fight for maintenance of constitutional rights.

The eclipse will be visible only in the north polar regions. A curious feature of this eclipse is that it will actually run over from today to tomorrow, or rather be seen on different days in different places. This is due to its visibility on both sides of the "date line," twelve hours west of the Greenwich meridian, running due north and south through the mid-Pacific. In crossing this line the voyager sets his calendar a day ahead or a day back, according to the direction in which he is going.

The year 1917 has seven eclipses, more than in any twelvemonth of the century past or of the next hundred years to come.

Georgetown, O., June 18.—John McAsee, sixty-seven, was killed, and James Love, sixty-five, farmer, was arrested, charged with the crime. McAssee was struck down with a club, his assailant, it is charged, creeping up on him from behind, while walking down street. Police say the crime was the outcome of a long-standing grudge.

Mrs. Marie Coochi, wife of Alfredo Coochi, Victor Blady, a chauffeur, and Joseph Palumbo, a clerk, are held by the police. The murdered girl's skates were found blood stained.

BODY IN CELLAR

New York, June 18.—The Esquimaux and the MacMillan Arctic expedition's members are going to enjoy an exclusive show today which will be invisible to the rest of the world. The exhibition will consist of a partial eclipse of the sun.
